Sheffield, 7pm

Deeds not Words: Changes in women's lives since 1918

A conversation with Helen Pankhurst

Helen, Sylvia's granddaughter, will be sharing and inviting reflections on how far we have got since 1918, based on a book she is writing for the centenary of the vote. Helen works for CARE International and is a Visiting Professor at LSE and Manchester Metropolitan University.

Sponsored by the National Assembly of Women, the Sylvia Pankhurst Memorial Committee and Wortley Hall.

The lecture will be followed by light refreshments.

If you require accommodation at Wortley Hall for the night please contact them on 0114 2882100, info@wortleyhall.com www.wortleyhall.org.uk
